Welcome to the Zeiterion Theatre!
We also call it The Z.
When we arrive, we may park in the parking garage next door.
We will exit the garage,
Then walk on the sidewalk before entering the building.
When we arrive at the theatre, we will go through the front doors.
Then we will enter the lobby.
If we need to buy tickets, we will go to the Box Office inside the lobby.
If we decide to get something to eat or drink, we go to the counter where concessions, or snacks, are sold.
There may be other people in the lobby who are also waiting to see the show. We may have to wait, and that’s okay.
The usher is someone who works at the theatre. She or he will take our tickets.
Then we will go through the theatre doors.
Once we get inside, the usher will hand us a program and take us to our seats.
Everyone in the audience will have their own seat. Each seat has numbers that match the numbers on our ticket. The ushers will help us find our seats.
If we need to use the bathroom, we can go before, during, or after the show. There is a men’s room, down a flight of stairs:
A ladies’ room:
And an accessible bathroom near the ladies’ room:

All have automatic hand towel machines that make noise.
The show will not start as soon as we sit down because people arrive at different times. We may have to wait, and that’s okay.
We will be able to see the stage and the show from our seat. Before the show begins, the lights will get dim, but not completely dark.

Then we will hear an announcement about the show. There may also be music.
The audience will be excited for the show to start. We will hear clapping as a way to say “thank you” to the performers. This might be a little loud. We can wear ear protection or cover our ears.
If we need to take a break at any time, we can go to the lobby where it is quieter.
If we need help, we can see an usher who is always nearby.
When the show is over, the lights will get brighter and the audience will clap. Then we will leave the theatre.
We will walk through the lobby and exit the building.

We hope you had a great time! Come see us again soon!

Photography credit: Dolly G. Photography